WHAT IS THE VOLUNTARY SELF-EXCLUSION PROGRAM?

The Program enables you to voluntarily exclude yourself from both Casino Nova Scotia properties (Halifax and Sydney). The Program is provided by Casino Nova Scotia and may be an important first step to getting your gambling under control.

HOW DO I ACCESS THE PROGRAM?

To access the Program, simply visit the Responsible Gambling Resource Centre (RGRC) located in both Casinos, or speak to a Casino Nova Scotia staff member. The Program can also be accessed through the Alcohol, Gaming, Fuel and Tobacco Division of Service Nova Scotia in Halifax or Sydney.

CAN SOMEONE ELSE DO THIS FOR ME?

Only you can voluntarily exclude yourself from Casino Nova Scotia properties.

WHAT IS THE SIGN UP PROCESS?

You will meet with a member of the casino staff who has been trained to handle requests for voluntary exclusion. The casino staff member will guide you through the process in a private setting. You will be asked to show government-issued identification, complete and sign a Request for Voluntary Self-Exclusion form and your photograph will be taken. When Responsible Gaming Resource Centre staff are on site and available to attend, you will have the opportunity to talk with a Centre staff member.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I VOLUNTARILY EXCLUDE?

If you are a Players Club member, you will be asked to return your card which will be cancelled immediately. Your name will be removed from marketing lists so the casino will not contact you in the future. If you try to visit the properties after you have voluntarily self-excluded, security staff have the authority to refuse you entry and escort you off of the premises.

FROM WHAT EXACTLY WILL I BE EXCLUDED?

You agree not to access Casino Nova Scotia properties in Halifax and Sydney, Nova Scotia. This includes the gaming floor, restaurants and entertainment venues located within the properties. This does not include Centre 200 in Sydney.

Individuals who have voluntarily self-excluded are ineligible to receive any prizes, cash or otherwise. This is intended to discourage people who have self-excluded from entering the Casino properties. Funds withheld are provided to the Province for programs and services for Nova Scotians.

WHO WILL KNOW?

Information collected about you and your participation in the Program will only be shared with casino staff responsible for maintaining the program and the Alcohol, Gaming, Fuel and Tobacco Division of Service Nova Scotia.

HOW LONG DOES THE EXCLUSION LAST?

The exclusion lasts until your chosen minimum exclusion time has passed and you complete the reinstatement process. The self-imposed exclusion length can be six months, one year, three years or indefinite and cannot be shortened once your agreement is signed. The minimum self-exclusion term must be completed in its entirety before you may start the reinstatement process.

WHAT IS THE REINSTATEMENT PROCESS?

To start this process, contact Casino Nova Scotia to make an appointment with Security. Alternatively, you can approach a Casino Nova Scotia security staff member at one of the entrances to begin the process. The Reinstatement takes effect one week after the Reinstatement Agreement is signed.

WHAT IF I WANT TO EXTEND MY MINIMUM EXCLUSION TERM?

If you would like to extend your minimum exclusion term (for example from a 6 month minimum to a 3 year minimum), you may do so by contacting the Alcohol, Gaming, Fuel and Tobacco Division of Service Nova Scotia, or Casino Nova Scotia.

WHERE CAN I GO TO GET HELP?

If you are considering voluntary self-exclusion, it is important to know that there are additional resources available to help you.
